SECRET AND PERSONAL

6 October 1947

Dear Hilley:

There is enclosed a sheet of paper which I received last Saturday from the visitor we had last Wednesday. After it has served its purpose, will you please return it to me.

The gentleman in question also enclosed his card on which he wrote, "With all my thanks for the few too short hours which brought back to mind with pleasure old sporting exploits".

As soon as I get around to it, I will call up Jimmie Crocker and have him arrange for a class luncheon the last Wednesday of this month.

Sincerely,

Sablot
